The banner pest ship of the Hamburg fleet, the Scandia, Captain Kopff, which arrived from Hamburg September 9th with a record of thirty-two deaths during her voyage, hoisted anchor at 6:45 o'clock and sailed for Baltimore, the port for which she was originally destined. All her passengers, who have been on Hoffman Island for the past ten days or more, were to-day landed at Ellis Island.

Captain Kopff expects that the report of Dr. Kinyonn, of the Marine Hospital Service, who has been busy the past four days in disinfecting the vessel and who pronounces her to be now the cleanest ship in the harbor, will enable him to avoid detention at Chesapeake bay. All reports from the detained ships at the upper and lower quarantine sta-tions are favorable to-day, and with Fire Island and Camp Low depopulated, and the last of the Scandia's passengers re-leased from Hoffman Island, the cholera may be said to be stamped out. The only infected ship left in the lower bay is the Bohemia, the last vessel to arrive with cholera. At Swineburne Island, where all the sick patients, con-valescents and suspects are, the condi-tion of affairs is reported to be most en-couraging. There are no new cases, and sick are improving. On the Stonington there are a number of cases of measles, and that malady has really caused the doctors more trouble than the cholera during the past week.

Jack the ripper eors up again.

London, Sept. 29.—A dispatch to the Standard from Vienna says that a mannamed Szmardy, who, while under arrest in Presburg, committed suicide in his prison cell, was, it has been learned, the perpetrator of a series of murders and robberies in that city.

The murderer was a lunatic. He committed several murders in Buenos Ayres.

The police at Pesth, Hungary, believe that Szmardy was the wretch known as "Jack the Ripper" in London. They claim to have evidence that he was in London at the time of the murders attributed to Jack the Ripper were committed. The lunatic at Presburg, however, does not appear to have chosen fallen women for his victims, and he ever, does not appear to have chosen fallen women for his victims, and he robbed people as well as murdered them. The case is exciting much interest in Hungary, and the London police have been communicated with.

THE OUTBREAK OF THE LIFE GUARDS. Major-General, the Hon. Paul Sanford

Methuen, addressed the First Life Guards at Windsor to-day. Lord Me-thuen inspected and drilled the men, and found them obedient and well disciplined. But when it came to endeavoring to obtain an acknowledgement from them of the proceedings of Saturday, General Methuen met with failure. He said that he would advise those who had been guilty of destroying their equipments to confess the fact, and he would treat their acts merely as insubordination. But if they should fail to confess he would have to proceed on the graver charge of nautiny. He would give them five minutes, he declared, to consider what they would do. The five minutes passed, but not a soddier spoke. The men were sent back to their quarters, and General Methuen will now report the affair to the commander-in-chief, the Duke of Cambridge.

London, Sept. 29.-Alderman Stewart Knill, of the Bridge ward, against whom strong opposition has been raised on account of his being a Roman Catholic, was to-day elected Lord Mayor of Lon-don by the court of alderman. The liv-erymen of London companies, among whom there is a strong tinge of orangvoted to recommend Alderman I ism, voted to recommend Alderman Philips, a Protestant, for the office, but the court of aldermen rejected the choice and refused to depart from the regular order because the Alderman whose turn it was to be Lord Mayor was a Roman Catholic. Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 29.-All race records save one were smashed to-day, and the world's record made yesterday by Nancy Hanks in her mile trotted against time was tied. The average for the five heats was less than 2:06 3-4. It was an ideal racing day, and at least two thousand people drawn by the excitement over Hanks' wonderful performance yesterday were added to the crowd of 10,000 the day before and filled the grand-stand and quarter stretch.

When Monroe Salisburg scratched San Pedro last night there was every promise of a fight to a finish in the free for all pace, for his unbeaten Flying Jib was in, as were also Mascot and Guy. The race judges were right under the rules moved up the race to third place so there should be no doubt of a finish. But in the free for all pace, Vinette had in a 2:13 pace lowered the track's race record made by Hal Pointer, 2:09 1-4, and then lost the race, and the handsome daughter of Jersey Wilkes had taken a race and a mark of 2:16 3-4 in handy style in the 2:28 trot. Between the heats of the last race the free for allers were at work, and the Jib brushed a quarter in 31 seconds. All of this served to work up the people to fever heat, and when the three side wheelers scored down for the word, the Jib was at the pole, Mascot second and Guy third.

They got away at the second attempt, scoring down at a terrific clip. They were at the eighth in 18 1-4 seconds, where Mascot overhanded Jib and took the pole. Guy was trailing, and it was plain to be seen that the rivals were to fight it out. Around the upper turn they flew, and the Jib was at Mascot's throatlatch at the half in 1:03 3-4. The second quarter had been done in 31 1-4 seconds. Faster and yet faster was the pace for the third quarter. It was a killing one, and was done in 29 1-2 seconds. Nancy Hanks record for three-quarters was smashed, and in a race heat at that.

Into the stretch the pair flew at this unheard-of clip, and the mile was done in 2:04. Pandemonium reigned. In fact the cheering began as the pacers turned the half, the wave of enthusiasm increasing with the quickening speed of the pacers. It was not necessary to ancounce the time. LAID GENTLY TO REST. The Last Sad Rites Performed-The Funeral of Albert L. West. Centenary Methodist church was crowded with sorrowing friends yesterterday afternoon, who had came to pay the last tribute to the late Albert L. West. The remains were bedded in a cloth covered casket, which was almost completely hidden by beautiful floral designs. The pulpit was occupied by Rev. Drs. Peterson, Sledd, Judkins and Cooper, while Revs. Dr. Hall, Bledsoe, Tudor, Rev. Mr. Stewart and others occupied seats in the audience. Mr. Shepherd Webb presided over the organ.

The services were opened with the hymn, "Jesus, While Our Hearts Are Bleeding" by the choir, consisting of Mrs. Harvey Blair, Mrs. J. H. Knowles, Horace F. Smith and E. H. Clowes, Rev. Dr. Peterson read a passage from the scriptures and Dr. Cooper gave out terday afternoon, who had came to pay the scriptures and Dr. Cooper gave out the hymn, "Just As I Am," which was sung by the congregation. Rev. Dr. Judkins offered an earnest prayer, and Rev. Dr. Sledd followed with the reading of part of chapter xv., I. Corinthians At the close of the reading, Dr. Sledd made a few appropriate eulogistic remarks, in the course of which dhe said:

"If I was to follow the custom of marks, in the course of which dhe said:

"If I was to follow the custom of former years and preach a sermon on the occasion, I would select the last part of the passage just read, and especially the words: 'Steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord.' They especially refer to our dead brother. There was no faltering or wavering on his part; he was clear and strong and decided in his religious convictions and purposes. He was especially devoted to the Sabbath-school work, and from his youth until his death was he identified with it in one way or another. He perhaps delivered more Sunday-school addresses than any other layman or minister in the city. His last work was in assisting his pastor in organizing a Sunday school in one of the suburbs and then assuming its superintendency at the request of the pastor. He was always ready to assist the pastor in any good work. He was also deeply interested in the prosperity of the Young Men's Christian Association, and did some excellent work for that organization."

The services were brought to a close by the singing of the hymn, "O, Where Shall Rest be Found?" and the interment took place at Hollywood.
